

Korea Press Foundation is looking for a Partner UK institution for Annual Visiting Scholar Programme

Korea Press Foundation (KPF) is looking for a UK HE institution that can provide a short term courses for Korean journalists. KPF is government funded organisation and send 2-3 experienced journalists to overseas for career development. The organisation is keen to maintain partnership with several UK institutions starting from this year to provide various training options to journalists. A successful candidate must be able to provide courses listed in option part below, and visiting Korean journalists will take courses for one semester from September to December. British Council Korea will receive all applications first on behalf of KPF and arrange meetings/conference calls with the organisation if necessary.

Please refer to the following information for details.

Proposal

To: UK HE institutions that provide courses listed below

From: Korea Press Foundation (<http://www2.kpf.or.kr/eng/intro.do>)

Subject: Short Term Training Programme for Korean journalists

Purpose of the Training:

- To obtain practical exercise opportunities by taking different range of courses in the UK
- Acquisition of expertise of each area; Finance, International Relation, Politics, Environment etc.
- To obtain practical experience by taking courses in the UK

Suggested Period:

- September to December 2017 (approximately for 2-3 months)

Number of Students:

- 2-3 students (Visiting students are Korean journalists with high fluency in English speaking/writing)

Application Options:

Option	Requirement
Option A	For institutions that provide high quality courses in Economics, Finance, and International Politics	Please apply for 1 option only
Option B	For institutions that provide high quality courses in Digital Journalism(Mobile Journalism) and Media Management (Advanced Media Skill)

Training Style:

- Visiting students will contribute as normal students.

Requirement:

- Students must be awarded with a certificate by the university they studied at

Tuition Fee (Budget):

- KPF will be able to spend maximum GBP3,500 per student for tuition fee

Service Fee:

- British Council will not charge any fee for coordination.

Please note that the British Council will collect all applications and pass them to Korea Press Foundation after deadline.

Application Form for Korea Press Foundation

Contact Information	Name of the Institution
	Institution Type
	Your Name
	Phone Number
About Institution	Region/City of the Institution
	Option you would like to apply for (Please tick the box)	Option A <input type="checkbox"/>
		Option B <input type="checkbox"/>
	Course Details
	Accommodation for students (Please tick the box)	Available with extra charge <input type="checkbox"/>
		Not Available <input type="checkbox"/>
Certificate Type
Statement	Why is your institution strong candidate for this programme?

Application is due 30th July, 2017

Please send your application or questions to Youngah.kim@britishcouncil.org

