2017 Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination Results Released

About 61,600 candidates of the 2017 Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSE) will receive their results notices tomorrow (12 July) from the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority (HKEAA).

This year, a total of 52,058 school candidates from 489 participating schools and 9,566 private candidates entered the HKDSE. The number of all candidates has decreased by 9.5% from last year.

Over 86% of day school candidates registered for two to three elective subjects in addition to the four core subjects, namely Chinese Language, English Language, Mathematics and Liberal Studies.

A total of 34,660 day school candidates obtained level 2 or above in five subjects including Chinese Language and English Language. This represents 69.7% of day school candidates, a decrease of 1.5% as compared to last year. These candidates are eligible to apply for sub-degree courses and relevant civil service posts.

The percentage of day school candidates who have met the general entrance requirements for local undergraduate university programmes is 40.9%, which has dropped by 1.3% as compared to last year. These 20,885 day school candidates obtained level 3 or above in both Chinese Language and English Language, and level 2 or above in Mathematics Compulsory Part and Liberal Studies.

This year, 86.1% of day school candidates attained level 2 or above in Chinese Language, representing an increase of 0.9% as compared to 2016, while 55.8% and 9.1% were awarded level 3 or above and level 5 or above respectively, which are similar to last year.

In English Language, 77% and 52.2% of day school candidates obtained level 2 or above and level 3 or above respectively, both representing a decrease of about 3% as compared to 2016 but are comparable to awards in previous years. The percentage of day school candidates achieving level 5 or above is 10.1%, which is similar to last year's figure.

In Mathematics Compulsory Part, 81.1% and 14.5% of day school candidates attained level 2 or above and level 5 or above respectively, which are comparable to last year.

The results in Liberal Studies are also similar to last year's, with 89.5% of day school candidates obtaining level 2 or above and 8.9% achieving level 5 or above.

In addition to the 24 Category A subjects, the HKDSE also offers 40 Category B Applied Learning subjects and six Category C Other Language subjects in 2017. Candidates who took Category B Applied Learning subjects achieved 'Attained' or above in 92.6% of the 3,464 subjects assessed and 'Attained with Distinction' in 23% of those subjects.

A total of 347 candidates entered Category C Other Language subjects this year. These subjects were examined using the Advanced Subsidiary (AS) level question papers from Cambridge International Examinations (CIE). The results of the June 2017 series examinations will be released on 14 August while candidates who sat the November 2016 series examinations had already received their results in February 2017.

More than 11,600 invigilator-sessions were organised for the written papers and listening tests, which were held in 396 schools this year. Special examination arrangements were made for 2,442 candidates with special educational needs and a total of 207 special examination centres were set up.

This year, approximately 820,000 scripts were marked onscreen in 14 assessment centres throughout the territory. About 4,200 markers, 400 marking assistants and 1,000 oral examiners were appointed to assess candidates' performance.

Arrangements for the release of results on 12 July
