

Higher Education Workshop on Student Mobility - from the UK to Japan -

The British Council and Universities UK International are jointly organising a Workshop on Student Mobility for representatives of UK and Japanese universities on Friday 16 November 2018 in London.

The workshop will focus on student mobility from the UK to Japan and will consist of presentations and one-on-one discussions/networking. It represents an excellent opportunity to build your knowledge in this area and establish or strengthen your institution's links and partnerships with Japanese counterparts.

Date and Time: 13:00 - 16:00, Friday 16 November 2018
Venue: The Ambassadors Hotel Bloomsbury
12 Upper Woburn Place, London, WC1H 0HX

12:00 - 18:00, Saturday 17 November 2018

at the Royal Society, London

6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

The Experience Japan Exhibition, now in its eighth year, provides UK's young people with a chance to discover a broad range of study and research opportunities available in Japan.

The Exhibition will be attended by 11 Japanese universities and one language school. Additionally, there will be public and private organisations, including the Embassy of Japan in the UK and Japan Society for the Promotion of Science, which offer various funds and services for UK students who wish to study, research or work in Japan. For further details, please visit the official Exhibition website.

We encourage you to promote this Exhibition among your students and faculty members.

It is expected that most of the following institutions attending the Experience Japan Exhibition 2018 will be present at "Higher Education Workshop on Student Mobility - from the UK to Japan -" to be held on Friday 16 November.

Keio University / Chuo University / Digital Hollywood University / Doshisha University / Hokkaido University / Kyoto University / Kyushu University / Okinawa Institute of Science and Technology Graduate University / Osaka University / Ritsumeikan University / The University of Tokyo
