

Programme objectives and outcomes:

Overall objective: Skills and enterprise People have the skills to be employable and to build inclusive economies which support stable and prosperous societies in Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam and the Philippines

Programme Objective

- To support the conditions for growth of social enterprise and social entrepreneurship in South East Asia through focused interventions and collaborations with the UK and globally

Policy and Research component

Result 1: Policy makers develop policies to support social enterprises and social entrepreneurship

Country specific outcomes

Government Policy

- SE is formally included in the National Development Strategy by end of 2019 (Indonesia)
- Greater govt and Int. development agency awareness of the role of SE in the economy and society (Indonesia, Malaysia)
- PRESENT (Poverty Reduction through Social Entrepreneurship) bill passed (Philippines)
- -SE included in Bangsamoro development plans (Philippines)

Education policy

- Curriculum change so that social enterprise becomes a formal part of the curriculum in Business Schools (Vietnam)

Skills and capacity building component

Result 2: More community oriented and socially active students (Vietnam and Indonesia)

Result 2.1: More socially entrepreneurial/enterprising CSO and NGOs (Indonesia and Philippines)

Result 2.2: SE intermediaries are strengthened to provide support services to social enterprises (Philippines)

Result 2.3: Improved community engagement in Corporate Social Responsibility programmes (Malaysia and Indonesia, Vietnam)

Public Awareness

Result 3: Public have a greater awareness of SE role and contribution to economy and society