2019 Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination Results Released

Results notices of the 2019 Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSE) will be issued tomorrow (10 July) by the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority (HKEAA).

This year, a total of 48,305 school candidates and 7,854 private candidates entered the HKDSE. The total candidature has decreased by 4.8% from last year.

Among the 47,005 day school candidates from 437 day schools, 89% registered for two to three elective subjects in addition to the four core subjects, namely Chinese Language, English Language, Mathematics and Liberal Studies.

A total of 32,600 day school candidates obtained level 2 or above in five subjects, including Chinese Language and English Language. This represents 71.8% of day school candidates, which is comparable to last year. These candidates are eligible to apply for local sub-degree programmes and relevant civil service posts.

The percentage of day school candidates who have met the general entrance requirements for local undergraduate degree programmes is 42.2%, which is the same as last year. These 19,728 day school candidates obtained level 3 or above in both Chinese Language and English Language, and level 2 or above in Mathematics Compulsory Part and Liberal Studies.

This year, 87.3% of day school candidates attained level 2 or above in Chinese Language, an increase of 1.2% as compared to last year, while 57.9% and 10.5% were awarded level 3 or above and level 5 or above respectively, both showing increases from last year's figures.

In English Language, 79.0% and 53.8% of day school candidates obtained level 2 or above and level 3 or above respectively, which are similar to 2018. The percentage of day school candidates achieving level 5 or above is 9.7%, which shows a slight increase of 0.7% as compared to last year.

In Mathematics Compulsory Part, 81.3% of day school candidates attained level 2 or above, representing a decrease of 1.2%, while 14.7% achieved level 5 or above, which is 0.8% higher than that of last year.

The performance of candidates in Liberal Studies has improved across the board when compared to last year, with 91.4% of day school candidates obtaining level 2 or above and 10.4% achieving level 5 or above, representing increases of 2.4% and 3.2% respectively.

In addition to the 24 Category A subjects, the HKDSE also offers 35 Category B Applied Learning subjects and six Category C Other Language subjects this year.

Candidates who took Category B Applied Learning subjects (excluding Applied Learning Chinese) achieved 'Attained' or above in 92.8% of the 3,445 subjects assessed, which has dropped by 0.8% from last year. Among these subjects, 27.4% and 8.2% were awarded 'Attained with Distinction (I)' or above and 'Attained with Distinction (II)' respectively, both are slightly higher than those of last year.

A total of 388 candidates sat Category C Other Language subjects this year. These subjects were examined using the Advanced Subsidiary (AS) level question papers from Cambridge Assessment International Education (Cambridge International). Results of the November 2018 series examinations were released in mid-January 2019, with 94.8% and 49.7% of candidates attaining grade e or above and grade a respectively.

More than 10,000 invigilator-sessions were organised for the written papers and listening tests, which were held in 355 schools this year. Special examination arrangements were made for 3,084 candidates with special educational needs, which has increased by over 15% from 2018, and a total of 263 special examination centres were set up for these candidates.

This year, approximately 750,000 scripts were marked onscreen in 12 assessment centres throughout the territory. About 4,300 markers, 360 marking assistants and 900 oral examiners were appointed to assess candidates' performance.
