

24 – 26 October 2019

Alexandru Ioan Cuza
University of Iasi

Rectors' Seminar

Universities in a Changing Europe

- 30 years since the Fall of the Iron Curtain -

International speakers:

- Professor Ludovic Thilly, Chair of the Coimbra Group
- Professor Tomáš Zima, Rector of Charles University of Prague
- Professor Elmer Sterken, Rector of the University of Groningen
- Professor Beate A. Schücking, Rector of The University of Leipzig
- Professor Juergen Barkhoff, Vice-Provost, Chief Academic Officer and Deputy President, Trinity College Dublin
- Professor Anne Scott, Vice-President for Equality and Diversity, NUI Galway
- Professor Dorothy Kelly, Vice-Rector for International Relations, University of Granada
- Professor Efrem Yildiz Sadak, Vice-Rector for International Relations, University of Salamanca
- Professor Jonathan White, European Institute, London School of Economics
- Professor Valeska Bopp-Filimonov, Institute of Romance Studies, Friedrich Schiller University of Jena
- Mr. Nigel Bellingham, Director of British Council Romania
- Professor Mohamed Ketata, Director of the Office for Central and Eastern Europe, The Francophone University Agency (AUF)

Registration open:

<https://forms.gle/WiiBnw1fLKZGYi8p8>

(deadline : 30 September 2019)

Seminar session topics include:

University Autonomy
Academic Freedom

Looking Back 30 Years: The Last Days of the Iron Curtain
Brexit: Continuing Academic Cooperation

The Spread of Populism
The Upsurge of Post-truth Propensities