

Are you a Thai student planning on studying in the UK?

Come along to our Pre-Departure Briefing: preparing for studying in the UK with confidence.

British Council Thailand is delighted to invite offer holders of UK institutions and their families to attend the special on-line pre-departure briefing to help you plan for studying in the UK with confidence.

With the Covid-19 pandemic, many students may have questions about what studying in the UK currently looks like, and how UK institutions are getting ready to welcome Thai students.

Saturday 7 August 2021 from 1400-1600

Get answers to your questions by joining us for the special pre-departure briefing organised by the British Council.

- Receive the latest updates on UK visa applications
- Better understand what to expect from your UK higher education and how to best prepare
- Gain first-hand insight on living and studying in the UK from Thai UK alumni.

Please note that the events will mostly be delivered in Thai.

Attendance at these events is free. The event will be conducted on MS Teams Live.
