Call for Expression of Interest

Short-term scholarship programme allowing postgraduate and doctoral students enrolled in Greek Universities to undertake a research placement in the United Kingdom.

The programme has been developed in the framework of the cooperation between the Hellenic Republic and the United Kingdom and is delivered by the Greek State Scholarships Foundation, the British Council, and the British Embassy in Athens.

2nd year – Academic year 2022 – 2023

(Short term mobilities of successful scholars must be completed by 31/12/2023)

The Greek State Scholarships Foundation (hereafter “IKY”) and the British Council (hereafter “British Council”), with the support of the British Embassy Athens (hereafter “British Embassy”), design and deliver, in the academic year 2022-2023, a short-term scholarship programme (hereafter “the Programme”) providing for structured learning and research placements of a four (4) - week duration each, in the UK. The beneficiaries of the Programme are postgraduate and doctoral students enrolled in Greek Universities.

This academic year, the Programme is delivered pursuant to Regulatory Provisions as approved by Ministerial Decree (hereafter “MD”) 30746/Z1/17.03.2023 of the Greek Deputy Minister of Education and Religious Affairs (Government Gazette 2085/τ.Β/31.03.2023).

The purpose of the Programme which, in the academic year 2022-2023, is exclusively funded by the Greek State Scholarships Foundation, seeks to encourage the mobility of postgraduate and doctoral students of Greek Higher Education Institutions (hereafter ‘HEIs’) to British universities to enhance their academic competencies and expand their research activities as well as to foster the bilateral academic cooperation in the period after the departure of the United Kingdom from the European Union, to the mutual benefit of both the grantees and the Higher Education Institutions involved.

The Call for Expression of Interest for the academic year 2022-20223 opens on Monday 10/04/2023 and closes on Monday 15/05/2023 at 23:00 EET.

The academic placements must be completed in 2023.

CHAPTER 1: SCOPE

1. IKY, the National Scholarships Agency, the British Embassy, which represents Her Majesty the Queen and the UK Government in Greece, and the British Council, the Greece branch of the United Kingdom's international organisation for cultural relations and educational opportunities, award thirty (30) scholarships to postgraduate students and PhD candidates in the framework of the programme "Greek-British Cooperation on Short-Term Scholarships, 2nd year".

2. In the academic year 2022-2023, the Programme provides for thirty (30) scholarships with a duration of four (4) weeks each. More specifically, (a) ten (10) scholarships will be awarded to postgraduate students at Master's level and (b) twenty (20) scholarships to doctoral students. In the event that the foreseen number of eligible applications in either category is not reached, IKY and the British Council, with the agreement of the British Embassy, may move the vacancies to the other category in order to ensure that the Programme's funds are fully absorbed.

3. In the academic year 2022-2023, the Programme is funded exclusively by the National Scholarships Agency with the total amount of 77.801,10€ for both categories, and each grantee will receive a gross amount of 2,593.37€ to cover travel and accommodation expenses in the United Kingdom.

CHAPTER 2: CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION (COPs) – ELIGIBILITY AND EXCLUSION CRITERIA

Postgraduate students and PhD candidates enrolled in Greek HEIs must meet the below conditions cumulatively to participate in the Programme:

1. Reside permanently in Greece.
2. Possess a Greek Tax Identification Number (TIN).
3. Hold a University Degree from a Greek HEI with a minimum final score of six and five tenths (6.5/10).
- 4a. Postgraduate students at Master's level (i) who have received their degree in the last five years, (ii) are enrolled in a Programme of Postgraduate Studies (hereafter "PPS") of a Greek HEI, (iii) hold an attestation from the PPS academic coordinator that the short-term mobility does not negatively impact the regular attendance of the PPS, and (iv) have been accepted, by the deadline set in the Call, by a British HEI to undertake a placement of four (4) weeks in a postgraduate programme at Master's level in the field of their postgraduate specialisation.
- 4b. PhD candidates (i) are enrolled in a Greek HEI and, at the same time, the title of their thesis has been approved and the Three-Member Advisory Committee has been appointed, (ii) hold an attestation from the supervisor of their doctoral thesis that the short-term mobility does not negatively impact their doctoral research and (iii) have been accepted, by the deadline set in the Call, by a UK HEI for a short-term mobility of four (4) weeks directly relevant to the elaboration of the candidates' doctoral thesis.
5. Hold a recognised English language certificate at C1 level as a minimum (see Greek Supreme Council for Civil Personnel Selection guidance https://www.asep.gr/guide/4K\_2020/englishproof.html).
6. Are not already enrolled in another study programme in the UK as an undergraduate, postgraduate or doctoral student or as a student on a short-term mobility programme, including distance learning.
7. Should they have received – at any time – another scholarship from IKY, the British Embassy or the British Council, they must have fulfilled all the obligations emanating from this commitment.
8. Male candidates must have completed their military obligations before the start of the scholarship or they must have been legally exempt from them or have been granted a military service deferment, the length of which covers the full duration of the scholarship and of the life cycle of said mobility.
9. IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council reserve the exclusive right to cancel the grant, should it come to their attention – even retrospectively – that the eligibility criteria have not been fully met. In this case, a refund of the amount already disbursed will be immediately due.

CHAPTER 3: APPLICATION PROCESS – SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS – ELIGIBILITY – SELECTION

1. The Call for the academic year 2023 opens on Monday 10/04/2023 and closes on Monday 15/05/2023 at 23:00 EET. The Call can be found on the websites of IKY (www.iky.gr) and the British Council (www.britishcouncil.gr).

2. Applications are completed and submitted electronically, in English, via the platform hosted on the website of the British Council at <https://bit.ly/3KHsnAs>, within the deadline provided in the Call.

3. Candidates must fill out the online application form, which also serves as a solemn declaration of Law 1599/1986, and attach the below supporting documents, as enumerated in the Call, in pdf format:

3.1 A copy of both sides of their ID card or of the appropriate pages (stating number, holder's ID) of a valid passport;

3.2 Any document proving that they hold a Greek TIN.

3.3 A first Degree from a Greek HEI, which clearly indicates the final grade with the precision of two (2) decimal places; alternatively, a relevant certificate of completion of studies issued by the Registry of the Greek HEI, which indicates the final Degree grade with the precision of two (2) decimal places.

3.4 An attestation issued by a UK HEI formally accepting the short-term placement by the deadline set in this Call.

3.5 An English language certificate at C1 level as a minimum (see Greek Supreme Council for Civil Personnel Selection guidance (www.asep.gr/guide/4K\_2020/englishproof.html)).

3.6 A Europass CV (see <https://europa.eu/europass/en>).

3.7 Army status confirmation by male candidates, in accordance with requirements set out at chapter 2, article 8.

4a. Postgraduate students at Master's level are requested to submit (i) a certificate from a Greek HEI stating that they are enrolled in one of its PPS, (ii) an attestation from the PPS academic coordinator that the short-term mobility does not negatively impact the regular attendance of the PPS and (iii) a Letter of Motivation of up to 700 words in English, where they set out their plans upon completion of the short-term mobility and how the latter will add value to their postgraduate studies.

4b. Doctoral students must submit (i) a certificate from the Greek HEI they are enrolled in, which clearly states the subject of their thesis and the date of appointment of the Three-Member Advisory Committee, (ii) an attestation by the supervisor of their doctoral thesis, explaining how the short-term mobility will be beneficial to the PhD candidate and (iii) a Letter of Motivation of up to 700 words, in English, where the doctoral students set out their plans upon completion of the short-term mobility and how the latter will add value to the elaboration of their thesis.

5. The screening and classification of the applications will be carried out by a committee set up jointly by IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council. The founding act will regulate the composition and any other matter pertaining to the committee's operation.

6. The candidates are solely responsible for filling out completely and correctly all the fields of the online application by the deadline foreseen in the Call. No change to the application is possible past the deadline for the submission of applications. No application sent in any other way (per e-mail or post, etc.) after the deadline for the submission of applications will be considered.

7. Applications submitted by candidates who fail to meet the eligibility criteria will be rejected as ineligible. Additionally, applications, which are not submitted pursuant to the procedure set out in this chapter or have not been correctly or fully completed or are not accompanied by all supporting documentation or have not been submitted by the deadline foreseen in the Call, will be rejected as ineligible.

8. IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council reserve the right to request, within a set deadline, that the candidates submit any additional clarifying document deemed necessary.

CHAPTER 4: SELECTION CRITERIA AND GRADING SCALES

1. Applications that meet the eligibility criteria and are submitted in line with set standards, are evaluated based on the following criteria:

1.1 Degree grade: from 6.5 to 10 points, corresponding to their final Degree score with the precision of two (2) decimal places.

1.2 Letter of Motivation: from 0 up to 30 points.

1.3 Quality of the CV: from 0 up to 60 points.

2. Evaluation of criteria 1.2 and 1.3, will also take into consideration scientific or professional competence in the relevant academic field (qualifications, professional/academic/research experience, publications, presentations in international and/or national conferences, awards, etc.).

CHAPTER 5: SELECTION PROCESS

1. The candidates are selected by the Evaluation and Selection Committee (hereafter “the Committee”), the set-up of which is foreseen in the trilateral cooperation agreement signed between the IKY Board of Directors, the British Embassy and the British Council. The parties to the aforementioned agreement appoint the Committee members. The Committee will comprise four (4) members in total: two (2) will represent the British Embassy and the British Council, and two (2) will represent IKY; all members shall hold a PhD.

2. The Committee will first conduct an eligibility check of the applications and draw up a Provisional List of Ineligible Applications stating the reason for their ineligibility. Said list will, upon approval by the IKY Board of Directors, the British Embassy and the British Council, be uploaded to the websites of IKY and the British Council.

3. Objections against the Provisional List of Ineligible Applications, well-argued and -documented, may be raised within five (5) working days from the list’s posting/publication and will be submitted electronically only to the dedicated email address of the British Council scholarships@britishcouncil.gr

4. Following the examination of the objections, the Committee draws up a Final List of Ineligible Applications, which after approval of the Board of the State Scholarship Foundation, of the British Embassy and the British Council, is posted on the websites of the State Foundation Scholarships and the British Council

5. The Committee specified in paragraph 1 will evaluate the candidates’ applications. The candidates’ final score will be derived from the amount of points they received during the evaluation of the criteria described in Chapter 4.

6. After evaluating the applications, the Committee will draw up a Provisional List of Selected and Runner-up Candidates, in descending order. The Provisional List will be approved by the IKY Board of Directors, the British Embassy and the British Council and, thereupon, posted on the websites of IKY and the British Council.

7. Objections against the Provisional List of Selected and Runner-up Candidates, well-argued and – documented, may be raised within five (5) working days from the last posting date and will be submitted electronically only to the dedicated email address of the British Council scholarships@britishcouncil.gr.

8. Objections against the Provisional List of Selected and Runner-up Candidates may be exercised exclusively for criterion 1.1 (degree). Any other objection against criteria 1.2 and 1.3 and/or against the Call for nominations, the evaluation process and the Commission's decisions are not considered.

9. Objections are examined by the Committee, which then prepares the Final List of Selected and Runner-up Candidates dates. The list is validated by the Administrative Board of IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council and is published on the websites of IKY and the British Council.

10. In case of removal from the list or withdrawal of a selected candidate before the start of the scholarship, the grant will be awarded to the first runner up candidate on the list.

CHAPTER 6: COMMENCEMENT AND DISBURSEMENT OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

1. The selected candidates will be called to conclude and sign a scholarship agreement with IKY and the British Council. Each agreement will specify the obligations of the grantee and the purpose, duration and terms of the scholarship as well as the modality of its disbursement.
2. IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council reserve the exclusive right, upon their agreement, to cancel the award of a scholarship to any candidate who does not submit a signed agreement within the set deadline. In this case, and if possible, the candidate is replaced by runners-up according to ranking order.
3. The disbursement of the scholarship commences upon the conclusion of the scholarship agreement.

CHAPTER 7: FINANCIAL AND OTHER PROVISIONS – ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

1. The gross amount of the scholarship amounts to two thousand five hundred and ninety-three euros and thirty-seven cents (€2,593.37) per scholar for both categories of candidates.
2. The scholarship amount will be deposited, following legal deductions due to the Greek State and bank charges, as a lump sum to a bank account the scholar holds in a Greek bank, provided that the beneficiary complies with his/her obligations as set out in the Call and the signed agreement.

CHAPTER 8: TERMS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

1. The scholarship is governed by the terms and conditions of the agreement signed between the candidate (on the one hand), and IKY and the British Council (on the other hand), as well as by the Terms and Conditions of the Ministerial Decisions and the Call.
2. Within one (1) month from the completion of the short-term mobility, the beneficiaries will submit electronically to IKY and the British Council a final report (postgraduate students) and a final activity report (PhD candidates).
3. In his/her final report or activity report the beneficiary shall mention the following: The mobility was delivered in the framework of the programme "Greek-British Cooperation on Short-Term Scholarships", which is run by the State Scholarships Foundation (IKY) and the British Council
4. IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council, further to reaching an agreement, reserve the exclusive right to cancel the grant, if it is found – even retrospectively – that the eligibility criteria or the terms of the call and the agreement were not fully met – except in cases of force majeure – and are entitled to ask, at their discretion, that all, or part, of the scholarship is returned.
5. The IKY Board of Directors, the British Embassy and the British Council can jointly decide to accept the invocation of reasons of force majeure, following a timely and well-argued application of the scholar, who bears the relevant burden of proof. Force majeure means any unforeseen, exceptional situation or event beyond the control of the scholar, which expressly and surely prevents him/her from fulfilling one or more of their obligations under the agreement and, which could not in this particular case be prevented even by acts of utmost diligence and prudence.

CHAPTER 10: OTHER PROVISIONS

1. The draw-up and validation of the final List of Selected Candidates does not imply any obligation on the part of IKY, the British Embassy and the British Council to award a grant to any candidate.
2. In case the number of allocated scholarships in any of the two categories is not fully covered, that is, ten (10) scholarships for Master candidates and twenty (20) scholarships for PhD candidates, IKY Board of Directors, the British Embassy and the British Council have the right to allocate the empty places to the other category to make full use of finances available.
3. Any issues that arise during the delivery of the Programme, which are not expressly referred to in this call, are regulated by joint decisions of the IKY Board of Directors, the British Embassy and the British Council.
