BEASISWA INDONESIA BANGKIT
YEAR 2024

A. Introduction

1. About the Indonesia Bangkit Scholarship

The enhancement of Indonesian human resources' quality is a governmental priority, as outlined in the National Medium-Term Development Plan (RPJMN) 2020-2024. In support of this governmental priority, the Ministry of Religious Affairs places significant emphasis on sustainable human resource development programs, as reflected in the Ministry of Religious Affairs Strategic Plan 2020-2024. To align with these goals, the Ministry of Religious Affairs collaborates with the Education Fund Management Agency (LPDP) of the Ministry of Finance to implement the Human Resource Capacity Enhancement Program through the Ministry of Religious Affairs Scholarship Funding Collaboration Program. This collaboration, effective from 2022 per the Agreement between LPDP and the Ministry of Religious Affairs on the Ministry of Religious Affairs Scholarship Funding Program, aims to provide access and opportunities for the public to pursue higher education through scholarships. The overarching objectives of the 2023 Collaboration Scholarship Program between the Ministry of Religious Affairs and LPDP are to fund four program components: Degree and Non-Degree Scholarships; Enhancement of Degree and Non-Degree Competencies; Research Funding; and Religious Education and Islamic Boarding School Education.

2. About MORA Overseas Student Mobility Awards (MOSMA)

Through this program, scholarship recipients are expected to gain valuable academic insights, engage globally, adopt an open mindset, adapt to diverse academic cultures, develop independence, boost self-confidence, and strengthen their pride as Indonesian citizens. The program aims to inspire students to broaden their academic and campus life perspectives internationally, fostering an awareness of Indonesia's potential on the global stage. This, in turn, motivates them to pursue further education either through scholarships or independently, with a high level of self-confidence as Indonesian citizens.
