

Agent Newsletter – Promotion Opportunity

Brief introduction and Readership

The Agent Newsletter produced twice a year by the British Council China aims to promote UK education, UK visas, British Council’s marketing work and other related information to all the agents (around 400 in total) and to the general public through these agents in China, enhancing agents’ confidence and knowledge in marketing Education UK. More details can be provided on request.

There are some new elements:

- 4,000 hard copies distributed to over 500 agents
- Under UK NOW arts and design theme
- E-copy sent to agents via e-mail
- A cover letter introducing advertising institutions
- One free tweet on Sina and QQ micro-blogs (dependent on size of ads)
- Free scholarship promotion

Distribution & Circulation

- Hard copies:

All agent newsletters (4000 hard copies per issue) will be printed in Beijing and then sent to each of the agent’s office (about 5 copies per agent in average), and the rest copies will be distributed during agent events directly to the agents within the region.

- E-copies:

The digital version will be sent to 500 agents by e-mail with a cover letter introducing institutions which place ads in newsletters.

-Micro-blog (dependent on type of advert):

One tweet about the advertising institutions will be posted via Education UK official account on two most popular micro-blogs. (38,000 followers from weibo.com and 350,000 followers from QQ micro-blog)
