

Call for institution for delivering a Training Programme to a group of Korean Art Teachers

Daegu Metropolitan Office of Education (DMOE) is looking for a university that can deliver a training programme for Art and Music teachers from South Korea. British Council in Korea will be collecting all applications and summarising responses, and submit to DMOE.

- ☐ Organisation : Daegu Metropolitan Office of Education(DMOE) in South Korea
- ☐ Theme of Training: Creativity and convergence Educational training for Art teachers in Music and Fine Arts
- ☐ Background: Facing the 4th Industrial Revolution era, Korean government reforms the national curriculum on integrated subjects to foster the student's creativity and converging abilities
- ☐ Target Audience: 10-12 Music and fine art teachers from secondary school from South Korea and 2 supervisors of DMOE
- ☐ Language: English translator needed (consecutive interpretation)
- ☐ Objective
 - To obtain practical experiences on Creativity and convergence Education in the UK
 - To get various ideas resources on the subject in the UK
 - To acquire knowledge from the training in order to possibly adapt/apply a curriculum in Korean context

☐ Date

- 1st option: July 23 - 27, 2018
- 2nd option: July 30 - August 3, 2018

☐ Detailed contents

- Briefing sessions by lecturers from universities and sector experts on :
 - ✓ The philosophy and overall system of art education of the UK
 - ✓ Current practice of secondary art education of the UK, lessons learned and challenges
- Practice the real activities of integrated art education of secondary school programme
- Field study on integrated art education at museums, galleries and concert house etc.
- Observing the real Art and Music classes in a local secondary schools
- Introduction and practice STEA(Art)M programme which relates to Arts
 - Field Trips to the following places are highly preferred: National Gallery, Royal Academy of Art, Tate Modern Gallery, Queen Elizabeth Hall(London Symphony Orchestra), Babican Centre, etc: Highly reputable places

☐ Budget from DMOE: 10 million Won (Approximately GBP 6,700)☐ Items inclusive of the budget

- 4 days of training programmes (at least 5 hours a day) for 10-12 teachers
- Venue required to deliver the training programmes
- Training materials in pdf files and print formats, which should be submitted in advance (two weeks before)

- Admissions fee to related institutions, Museums, and Galleries, and transportation fee. (If the venue is close enough to travel by subway, participants will cover their own transportation fee)
- Lunch (4 days), light refreshment during the training
- Translator hiring fee (subject to negotiation)

☐ Items not inclusive of budget (Participants will cover their own)

- Accommodation
- Dinner and breakfast
- Transportation fee from/to the airport
- Medical fee or medical insurance

☐ Time line (GMT)

Content	Date
Notice	April 9, 2018.
Q&A period	April 9 - 16, 2018.
Closing date of application	April 20. 2018
Review	April 24, 2018. (N/A)
Final result	April 27. 2018. (N/A)
Further discussion	April 30 - May 18. 2018
Contract	May 22. 2018. (N/A)

☐ Applicant institutions will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- The relevance between the lectures and the actual British Education systems

(50)

- Efficient Methodology for teaching(20)
- Efficiency of field study(20)
- Quality of lecture (10)

☐ How to apply

Institutions wish to participate in this opportunity should send the following documents to Youngah Kim by 20th of April, 2018.

- Application form
- A training programme (rough draft is fine)

☐ Contact person

Youngah Kim: Education Manager, British Council in Korea
Youngah.kim@britishcouncil.org
+82 2 3702 0695