Study UK Connect – Students' Visit to UK

British Council Pakistan's study familiarisation programme will bring a group of approximately 15 to 20 undergraduate students from a leading arts university from Pakistan to the UK in March 2019 for five days. The objective of this programme is to introduce Pakistani students to international education at UK, explore different courses, UK application procedures and become acquainted with international culture and community through study experiences, discussions and workshops held in UK higher education institutions.

As part of this programme, the institution hosting the students' delegation will deliver a five days study-programme focusing on design thinking, innovation in design, real world application.

Mission objectives and ROIs:

Trip objectives:

1. Facilitating Pakistani students to experience life as international students in UK
2. Introducing the students to international education and related challenges and opportunities
3. Facilitate learning experiences in UK through interactive sessions / workshops, discussions or classroom sessions
4. Help students in developing abilities and skills to analyse, articulate, present and debate their own views and understanding
5. University tour: introducing students with selected departments and facilities at the university
6. Meeting with the international student counsellors to develop an understanding of different courses, application criteria / procedures and scholarship opportunities
7. Meeting with key student representatives from the international/Pakistani student societies

Benefits for participating UK institution:

1. An opportunity for the host institution to showcase the best of their facilities and student culture to a visiting group of prospective international students directly through face-to-face engagement
2. Participating institution can use this opportunity to advise students on applications and international qualifications being offered by them, share presentations, talks, hand-outs and other promotional engaging activities with the visiting students
3. An opportunity for the host institution to directly engage with its target audience in Pakistan
4. As the visiting students will be accompanied with the administrative staff members, parallel meetings with the representatives from External/International Relations Department of host institution could be arranged for possible collaborations and partnerships (no partnership fee involved)

About the visiting students and the university:

Indus Valley School of Art and Architecture (IVS) was founded in 1990 by a group of professional architects, designers and artists who believed that Karachi was in critical need of a school of excellence encompassing the disciplines of Design, Fine Art and Architecture.

IVS offers four-year academic programme in Fine Art and Design and five-year academic programme in Architecture. Indus Valley School of Art and Architecture is dedicated to much more than producing technically competent artists, designers and architects. It strives to motivate and guide students to think, be curious, to keep themselves open to sources of experience and learning, to be politically aware and socially responsive and take an independent position, respecting knowledge and people of knowledge, with humility.
