CHAPTER 1 OCCUPATION

Hi, my name is Henry Middleton and I am an English teacher at SMK Ayer Dalam. Since I was a little boy, I used to walk around with a book and a ruler in my hand, pretending to be a teacher. I am glad my dream came true. I love my job! What about you? What do you want to be when you grow up?

Goodbye Manglish, Hello English

Fun with Idioms

"Ducks in a row"

Meaning: To have things in order

Origin: This expression arises from the tidy habit that ducklings have of swimming in a straight row behind their mother

Example of usage: To ace your project presentation, make sure to rehearse it a few times beforehand to get your ducks in a row.

"Face the music"

Meaning: To accept the consequences of one's mistake

Origin: It originates from the British military practice of playing the drums when a soldier is found guilty of breaking military laws and discharged from his duties

Example of usage: When Thomas arrived home one hour past his curfew, he had to face the music.

QUICK FIX
#1

Improve your pronunciation

▶ Watch a native English speaker's mouth on TV. Note what shapes it makes and try to copy them.

▶ Unlike Bahasa Melayu, English spelling and pronunciation are often not the same! Learn to say a word by listening to it.

▶ Record yourself speaking in English for one minute, then listen back. Do you hear any errors?

▶ Sing your favourite English songs and try to copy the native speaker's sounds.
