What is it?

A meeting point between families with children searching for a school and education centers.

This is a space where schools and education centers can explain their educational project and mission to families searching for quality preparation.

It is a differentiation environment where you can meet face to face with the families and attend to their specific demands.

How does it work?

One table, two chairs at each side and thousands of families interested in the schools.

- ▶ Each school will be provided with a 2-meter long table with two chairs at each side and a wall plug (socket)
- ▶ No need to invest in carpentry: we offer the practicality of the space to talk with the families
- ▶ The fair has set a supervised playing area for the children so the parents can fully focus and listen to your school's educational project

Advertising Campaign

Social Media Plan with ads in Facebook.

We will contact all the schools the Group and Scholarum.es work with to inform the families about all the international schools participating in the fair

Advertising in Siena Group's own media (such Magisterio newspaper, Padres y Colegios magazine, etc.)

Telemarketing with international companies' HR department.
