

An Invitation

Qatar International College Fair 2015

October 19 - 21, 2015

Qatar National Conventions Center

“Hall No 6”

The Higher Education Institute (HEI), would like to invite you to the Qatar International College Fair 2015” entitled “ Towards Diversity: Inspiring Creativity and Originality”, which will be held from 19 to 21 October 2015 at Qatar National Conventions Center “Hall No 6”

The Higher Education Institute aims to strengthen its relationships with the world's best universities, and ensures students are made aware of opportunities the universities have to offer for undergraduate and post-graduate study. Currently, the HEI has top-ranked institutions from around the world on its scholarship list.

Qatar International College Fair provides opportunities for high school seniors and graduate students to meet with your university representatives face to face and gain first- hand knowledge about your admission requirements, application process, required tests, visa issues, living in different parts of your country, and many questions learners have about studying overseas.

The Higher Education institute will be providing the participating universities the followings:

- Free booths
- Lunch during the days of the fair + Coffee breaks.
